The image shows a book cover with a light-colored, textured background. In the center is a rectangular portrait of a woman with dark hair, wearing a dark dress with a white collar, and holding a large, open, multi-colored fan. The portrait is set against a yellowish-gold background. Surrounding the portrait are several small, dark blue ink drawings, including clusters of berries or grapes. The book is placed on a surface with a repeating pattern of blue ink drawings, which include a woman climbing a tree, a woman in a dress, a woman in a doorway, and various floral and abstract motifs.
